Mom and sis to the right. Must've been late 1948, be my guess.

Sister, Jan and me holding onto Craig. This was probably Easter, 1954 in Cayucos, CA

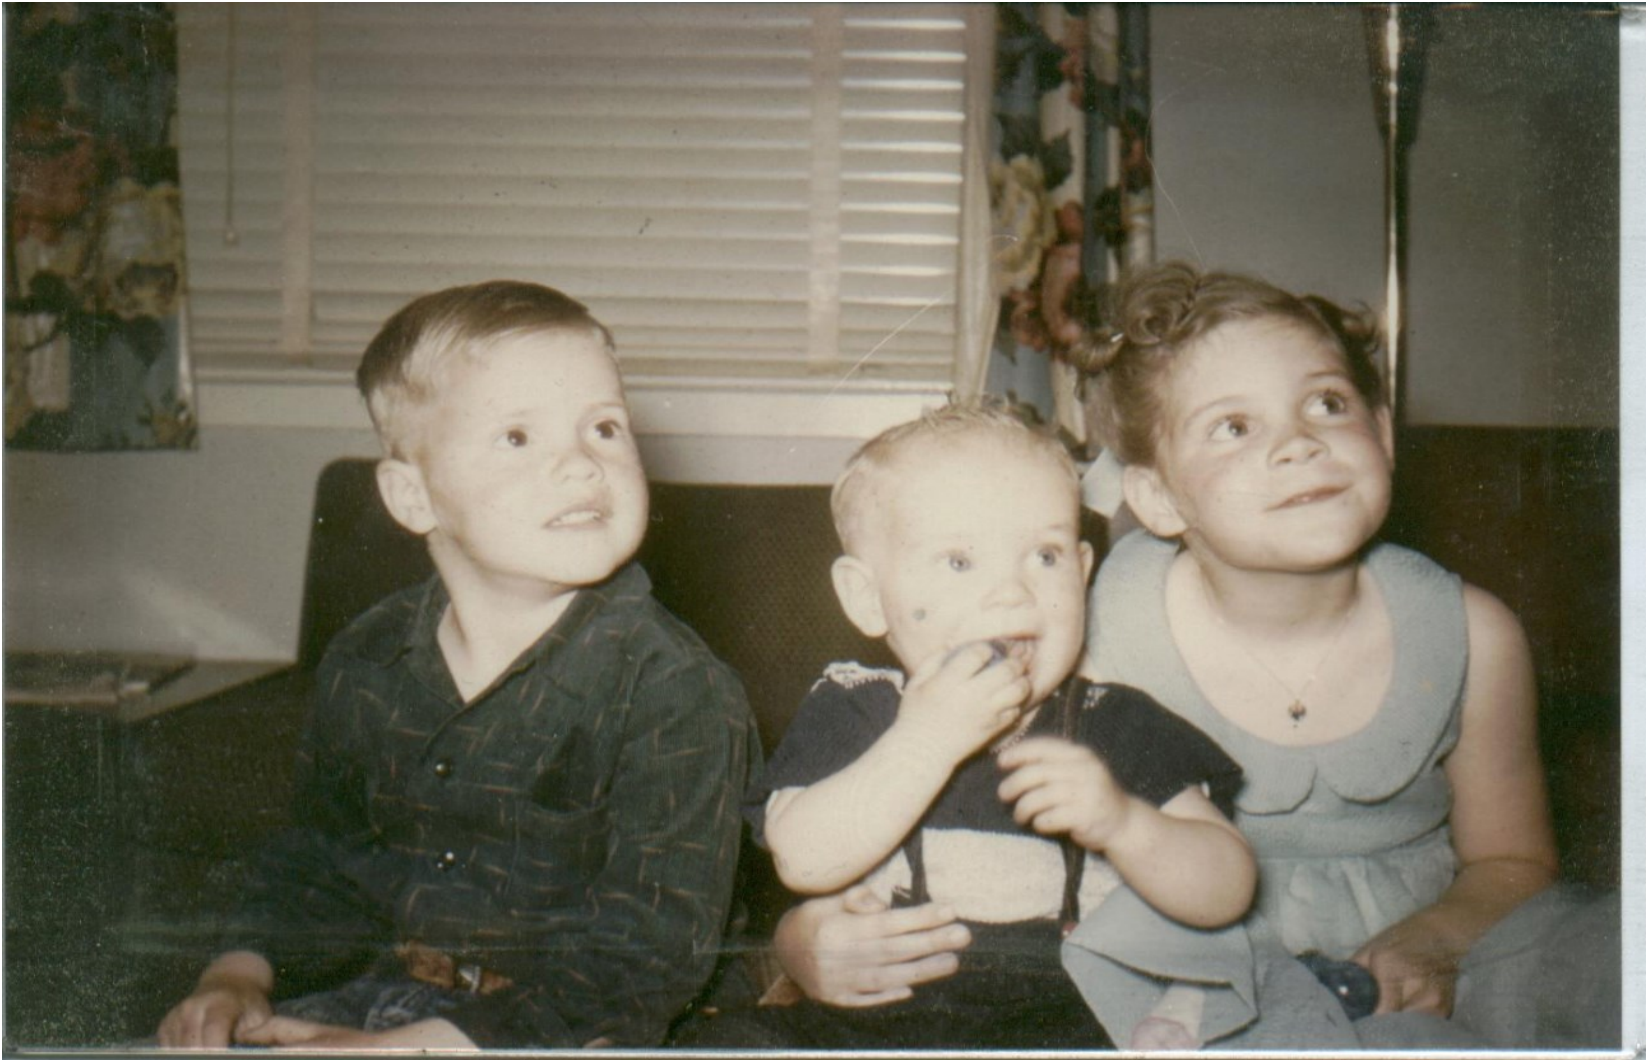

Here we are several years later in Fremont, CA. I would guess this was the late 80's.

I guess the caption says it all. The family on the far right is us. My older sister Jan and myself in the blue checked shirt. Behind us is mom, dad and younger brother Craig.

Next to my sister are cousins Jerry and Jim Groseclos. Sitting behind them is younger sister JoAnne. They are LHS'ers '64, '65 and '70 respectively. My brother Craig is LHS '72.

Cousins---Thanksgiving 1964---Delano

Same group as above only four years later, same place, Delano, CA.

This must have been taken sometime around Christmas of 1974. Probably the last time I was clean shaven. I would guess this was shortly after graduating from Cal Poly and I was in the hunt for a job..... L-R back is me, brother Craig and step brother Glenn. In front is step mother Bev and dad.

Dad and Craig, Thanksgiving 1977 in Redwood City. Craig had flown up from Long Beach to spend the holidays.

Winter 1982 - Brother Craig (LHS '72) and good friend Ren Peltz fly up to the SF Bay area to visit for a few days. On a whim, and before it became popular, we decided to rate the best hamburgers in San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties. We took photographs of each place tested. The rule was one hamburger, cheese, lettuce and tomato, cut into three sections, and one beer each. That was it, nothing more from each stop. After we got back to my house in Redwood City, we took time to go over our notes and rate each one. It was extremely difficult as many of you know that each has its own style of grilling. After the tally was calculated, the Oasis in Menlo Park edged out the others. Worth noting, this took all day and covered about 150 miles total driving distance around the Peninsula side of The Bay.

Winter 1982 - This is a follow up to "page 1". Most of these were shot inside the places we visited. Also, most were along what is known as the old Pioneer Trail in San Mateo County. It runs from around La Honda - Woodside on down south to Portola Valley. From page 1: a) Pioneer Inn - Woodside. b) The Peanut Farm - Woodside. c) Oasis - Menlo Park. d) Alpine Inn - Portola Valley. e) Prince of Wales - San Mateo. f) St. James Infirmary - Mountain View. g) Hitch Rack - La Honda. h) Canyon Inn - Redwood City. Also worth noting there were others but we just didn't have time to rate them like the Dutch Goose in Palo Alto, Pete's Harbor in Redwood City and Clarke's in Mountain View. In planning our route, and knowing the time it would take, we tried to stay on a tight course that took us starting south and working our way back north back to my house, for obvious reasons: gulp, gulp, gulp...
