

Hodads,

Guess what your most valuable ass-et is when surfing ? It isn't this and I will say the shore break at Carmel is nasty; even on small waves.

The first thing I checked, after knowing I didn't nave a fin in my temple, or up my ass (as was the case with Jerry Lopez several years back at the Pipeline... almost died) was my wrist. Fortunately it was still hinged the way it was meant to work although quite sore, as was my fingers.

This nasty little blem wasn't evident until I pulled off my wetsuit. Yes, it hurts.

Cowabunga !!!!
